Pumeral of Namuel E. Evans.

The funeral of Mr. Samuel E. Evans, son of the Rev. William B. Evans, of this city, took place at the family residence, 222 Thirteenth street southwest. A large number of friends and relatives were present, and a number of members of the Metopolitan Church, of which deceased was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. Robert N. Baer, and a few selections were sung by Mrs. Tasker and others of the Metropolitan Church choir. The floral tributes were very select, among which was a magnificent wreath, sent by President Arthur from the White House. Mr. Evans was nearly twenty-saven years old, and the oldest of twelve children, saven of whom are now dead. Since a boy of sixteen years of ago he was a sincer and conscientious Christian, and during a few years when he was a soldier in the Fifth United States Artillery, in Montana, under General Miles, he retained his integrity. During that time he was so exposed to cold that he contracted pulmonary consumption, and his health never recovered, although he had been a clerk in the Agricultural Department for some time. His remains were buried in Glenwood Cemetery.

A Pleasant Wedding.

A Pleasant Wedding.

St. Patrick's Church was filled at the early hour of nine o'clock yesterday morning by the numerous triends and acquaintences of Mr. Howard O. Clagett and Miss Mamile Dulhamei, the daughter of Dr. Dulhamol, to witness their marriage. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rov. Father Lynch, assisted by Rov. Father Walter. The bride wore a handsome white satin dress, and looked very charming. There were no bridesmaids. Messrs. R. D. Walsh of St. Louis, W. W. Mohun, M. C. Clagett, and W. H. Dulhamel acted as ushers. Owing to the bride's family being in mourning, but few outside of the nearest relatives were invited to the breakfast, which was served at Dr. Dulfamel's residence after the ceremony. The bappy couple left on the afternoon train for a trip to the North and Canada.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the well-known lady lawyer, is being sued, by a Mrs. Gordon on a promisnery note made in 1676, the suit having been pending some time. The belance sought to be recovered is some $600, and the plea she sets up is that of coverture, her husband being alive when it was made, and that she indorsed the noise to assureMrs. Gordon that it was good. Mrs. Gordon's attorneys deny this pleas, and allege that the defendant went on the note in the course of her business as an atterney, and that consequently she is to be regarded as a fomme sole. Yesterday Justice MacArthur perempiority ordered the defendant to withdraw the plea of coverture or class submit it to be disbarred. The plea was withdrawn. Suit on a Promissory Note.

Bindergavien Entertainment.

The Christmas celebration of the Bethany Free Kindergarten took place at the lecture room of the E Street Baptist Church yesterday afternoon. An interesting musical and literary programm wase pre-cuted, which was greatly enjoyed by the little ones and the friends of the Bethany. After the entertainment presons of fruits and candles were districted among the purits and a hearty linch spread for them. The "Bethany" is a charitable institution, under the supervision of the Misses Graves. This is the second year of its existence, and is now in a prosperous condition, being supported by the Froebel Society and contributions from those interested in kindergarten work.

A Supposed Burglar Arrested. John Jackson, colored, was arrested by Officer MacNeal, of the Fifth Precinct, at six a myester, day, on suspiction of having committed burglary. In his possession was found a lady a closk, seal-simer, a box of dominoes, a loaded pistol, and several other articles. A few hours later Mrs. Murray, of 607 Thickenth street, reported to the solice the burglary from her residence of the above-samed articles, and also a lot of catables. futtenn in a Bebating Society. The all-absorbing topic of the hour-the sanity or insanity of the measain furtesh—was ably debated by the Wallack Literary and Tebating Suciety last night. The subject was well handled, the various arguments pro and con being advanced with clear legic and supported by saniar casen. The debaters on both sides of the house have evidently paid considerable attention to the subject. UNREPORTED ROBBERIES.

Rasea Which Have Been Detected by "The Hepublican," Not through the Police. While Washington is singularly free from serious rines, the number of petty larventes and burdaries committed almost daily is becoming a major of serious alarm to householders. The fault less not with the police force, but to the fact that he force is far too small to do their work properly. Vashington covers such an immense area of round, and the guardians of the peace area of we number, that full scope is given to the criminal classes to ply their nearrous vocation. The detective force under command of Lieutenant Eckloff areas the and intelligent a body of gentlemen is can be found in any city. Still they think it recessary to keep slence about burglaries, and, while Tue Republican may hold its own opinion them the wisdom of that course, to exceed the reflectives the police reporters on this able about the windom of that course, to overcome their reflecting the police reporters on this able journal have to do at times their own detective work. Two cases were uncarried last night. On Christmas eve, between six and seven o'clock, Mr. J. L. Edwards, of 1996. F street northwest, found that a steak-thief had entered his residence through the back tarlor windows and carried off a couple of valuable overcoats. In one of the crate was a few-tholiars in money and a bank-book. The book was returned to the bank a few days afterward by a colored boy, who saidlie had found it. Mr. Edwards is unfortunate, having been robbed twee afready. Now for ease number two. A few days previous to Mr. Edwards robbery the house of Mr. Mercer, corner of Twenty-first and 1 streets nurthwest. The thief or thieves entered the house during the night and raided the owners of several dresses and wearing apparel. They loft a momento of their visit by leaving the gas burning in several of the rooms.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.

Hecting Last Night-Record of Fires During the Month of Becember.

The regular meeting of the Beard of Fire Commissioners was held last night at the District building. The report of the Chief Engineer showed, during the month of December, filtern fires representing a loss of $16,400, with insurance amounting to $12.50. The resignation of private Herod Oakern, to take effect from the filst ullimo, was accepted, and Charles Burk was appointed in his place. A number of bills and requisitions were approved and the board then adjourned.

After the adjournment of the Fire Commissioners a meeting of the commission recently appointed to inspect the public buildings in this city and Georgetown was held at the same place, all the members being present, General F. F. Hacon in the chair. A drant of a report upon the places already visited was agreed upon and a list to be inspected next Monday was prepared. A report will be presented to the District Commissioners this week. Drawings of an automatic fire-extinguisher, a most ingenious device for extinguishing fires, were examined. The commission expressed themselves highly pleased with it. The buildings inspected yesterday were the Government Printing Office, Abner's Theatre, and the Theatre Comique.

THE SNOW-STORM.

Probable Steighing on Pennsylvania Avenue To-Day.

The snow which commenced yesterday afternoon has continued to fall with but slight interruption, and at this hour (I a. m.) the foathery fakes are notselessly whirling down, and the ground is covered with a pure white carpet. Should it continue to snow until daylight the streets will be in splendid condition for sleighing, and the broad Avenue will be filled with everything that can be placed on runners. The special indications for Washington are that the snow will continue during to-day, and that it will turn to rain to-night. Even for the brief time that the snow lays every one who has any sort of a vehicle which can be made to slide should improve the opportunity for sleighing. There are in this city same very handsome sleights; and as for horses, there is probably as good blood to be found in the District as anywhere in the country. Let an imprompts carnival be gotten up. Bring out the trotters, the family horses, the heavy carriage horses, the made to draw a sleigh-manilet there be one jolly day of sleighing fun. It will please everybody.

Rossi Next Week.

"This cloquent actor," as Rossi has been aptly termed, of the Italian stage, commences a very brief engagement in this city next week. The following extract from a long criticism in the Baltimore Times of yeasterday, conveys admirably an idea of his remarkable powers: "The love seens with the Conntess was superb. The face of Rossi, which resembles that of the painter Fortuny, was as cloquent as his volce, and pleading more passionate and tender, more varied in expression was never listened to by any woman. Miss Muldener looked and played her character most admirably, and the tableau was a charming one. The sudden change from loving passion to disappointment, when the Prince of Wales and Cheat Koejed interrupted the lovers, was in the highest degree artistic. In the theatre scene which followed the action culminated. Rossi, as if stimulated by the can succe be drank as part of the business of the situation, was magnificent, and when he threw his part of Honslet to the winds and burst forth in hot denucleation of the prince and his false mistress in the box, ending with hysterical laughter, the audience fairly rose with enthusiasm, and the vole of the actors, who, in various characters, were disposed in the boxes and auditorium, were drowned in rounds of appliause and rapturous braves. After this even the fine fifth act was substained to the end nevertbeless." The sale of seats for Rossi indicates a notable success in this city.

The Washington Light Guard.

The Washington Light Gunrd.

The first meeting of the Washington Light Gunrd since their removal from Capitel Hill took place last evening at their new srmory, corner of Sixth and C streets northwest (Post-Office Block). New applications for membership were received and a general public meeting determined upon for next Saturday evening at some centrally-located hall to organize auxiliary committees for the coming fair at Masonic Hall. The co-operation of the city press will be requested to make the meeting a success, and steps will be taken to secure the attendance and active assistance of ladtes in the various parts of the city hocan be reached before the meetance and active assistance of ladies in the various parts of the city who can be reached before the meeting. Assurance was given on behalf of a number of merchants that they intend to make substantial contributions, and in view of the task imposed upon the individual members by the fair work on hand it was resolved to give no hop during the present month. Captain Robertson, an honorary member of the company, was authorized to publish the Fair Journal during the progress of the fair. There is every prospect now that this company will rapidly march to the front rank of popular organizations in the District, and every possible encouragement should be extended to it. It is gratifying to see the success of its fair almost assured beforehand, but this should rather slimulate the liberal and public-spirited portion of our community to help toward making it one of the largest and most creditable affairs of the kind ever held in the District.

Building Associations,

The Equitable Building Association held its iwenty-seventh monthly at Marinn's Hall, H. H. Twombiy, first vice-president, presiding, and John Joy Edson, secretary, discharging the duties of that office. Ten thousand seven hundred dollars were disposed of at an average premium of 78 per cent, the competition being very spirited. Juriging from present appearances this association will soon be one of the large financial institutions of this city. Numbers of business men are taking advantage of the rare opportunities offered for obtaining money upon the easy terms guaranteed by this association.

money upon the easy terms guaranteed by this as-sociation.

Federal Building Association No. 2 held its ninth regular monthly meeting, the president, James S. Edwards. In the chair. The secretary sold ad-vances on thirty-one shares at the minimum rate of premium, 35 per cent., amounting to $4,000.

At the third monthly meeting of the Perpetual Building Association, held last evening at 515 Sev-enth street northwest. C. C. Buncauson, esq., presi-dent, in the chair, the secretary sold $2,500 at an average discount of $51, leaving the borrower $145 to each share. This gives $1,045 for a total monthly payment of $14.

Kamasa Republican Association.

The above association held its regular session in Room 70, Corcoran Building, Hon. N. C. McFarland in the chair and W. H. Johnson secretary. An election of officers was held and resulted as follows: Hon. N. C. McFarland, president; E. J. Dallas, vice-president; E. C. Grumley, second vice-president; J. K. Rankin, third, and R. J. Bilas, fourth, the last three being from the three respective congressional districts; J. P. Hamilton, secretary; D. D. J. Evans, corresponding secretary, and Captain A. A. Thomas, tressurer. A number of applications for membership were received and referred to the executive committee. Ex-Governor S. J. Crawford and Milt. W. Reynolds, of Kennas, were elected honorary members. Mr. Reynolds, known as "Kicking Bird." favored the association with one of his humorous speeches. Mr. E. J. Smith, also of Kansas, favored the association with one of his humorous speeches. Mr. E. J. The Exodus Singers. The Exodus Singers.

The Exodus Singers gave a very successful entertainment, musically speaking, at the Congregational Church list night. The snow storm militated against a crowded attendance, but those who were present were wall repaid. The programme was well selected and the various numbers were effectively rendered, some of them being emphatically encored. A number of "Exodus" selections, from Miss Louise A. Smith's drama of that name, were introduced, and were very favorably received.

The Tabernacle Bazaar. The Tabernacle Bazzar.

The Tabernacle bazzar continued last night, Although the heavy snowfall interfered with the attendance of many who would otherwise have been present, there was a good number to participate in the enjoyneuts of the evening. The bazzar will close this evening, when everything on hand will be disposed of to the highest bidder.
